Scaling Debts.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—In some remarks under the above heading, you say, "but if the power exists, it is very certain, that the scale reported by the committee at the fall session of the Legislature, would do great injustice, if adopted." I beg leave to submit a few remarks differing materially from the views as set forth by you. You contend that the mistake of the committee is that they have recommended figures too high. I contend that if any mistake is made it is in the fact the figures are too low. You say "it is a question by no means free from doubt, whether a State even by the power of a Convention can establish a scale for the reduction of debts, in the face of the inhibition, that "no State shall pass any law impairing the obligation of contracts." And further on you ask, "what then is to be done"? You propose to put it in the power of the County Courts.—Does a County Court have more power than a Convention that created the court? Does the creature have more power than the creator?—If a Convention have no power to "establish a scale for the reduction of debts," can it confer that power on a County Court? Can it confer that which it has not? But I agree with you in doubting the power of a Convention to impair the obligation of contracts. But has not the Convention already done that? Has it not refused to pay individuals money borrowed from them? Does it not apply to public as well as to private contracts? She has already not only impaired but entirely obliterated contracts. She has impaired her contracts with individuals who loaned her money from their hard earnings and it is a total loss. And having repudiated part of her debt, you would be surprised, Mr. Editors, to know the number of people who are in favour of a still further repudiation. Three fourths of the people in this and adjoining counties are in favour of a "clean sweep" inasmuch as the Convention has put the ball in motion. They say there is no half way ground." "Whole hog or none." They were opposed at first to meddling with repudiation, but since it has begun, let it go through. If the State won't pay A, he cannot pay B, and B cannot pay C, and so on ad infinitum. And so let all keep what they have got and begin anew. Then law-suits, contention and financial strife would be at an end. Those who do not owe anything and have a large amount owing them, say they are in for the utilitarian principle—that if a total repudiation will ameliorate the condition of the greatest number, they are for it. As laws passed during the war is of no effect, contracts made in pursuance thereof ought to have no effect. That men who the people (that is, the State) refused to pay, are not now willing to be heavily taxed, to pay into the treasury money to be paid out to other men, who had no greater amount of patriotism by loaning the State than they themselves had. Those who owe nothing and have nothing owing them, are willing to "wipe out" to get rid of taxation to pay retrospective debts. Such is the reasoning of the people, and unless a great reaction takes place, they will make it an issue in the next canvass and vote accordingly. These are the people's views. I am discussing, or going now to discuss, the scaling of debts. Without further digression, I think I can convince you beyond a reasonable doubt, that the "gold basis" and not the "article basis," is right. And before I proceed further, I will state that, in advocating either side of the question, I am not actuated by selfish motives as I have as much owing me as I owe; so I am not an ex parte judge. I make this statement as I know some persons erroneously think that people argue this question according as they are owing or being owed. Now to the point.

In the first place, the plan of settling debts by the "article basis" would lead to innumerable and never-ending and ruinous lawsuits. If the Legislature were to adopt no uniform rule, debts would have to be settled by filing bills of injunction in courts of Equity, which would lead to vast expense, trouble and waste of time, and the parties perhaps not satisfied. If left to the County Courts, and the Court were to appoint arbitrators, it would lead to the same result, except that it would go further, and in nine cases out of ten appeals would be taken, and the court dockets would always be filled with suits of debt. Whereas, if the Legislature will adopt an uniform rule, all parties will know by looking to the date of the note or account, and then at the date and figures in the scaling schedule of prices, exactly what he has to pay. Thus no disputes, lawsuits or inconvenience would arise, for every man would know what he had to abide by—that there is no appeal.

The above plan, all will admit, is the most convenient and simple way of settling debts. Now, I will give my reasons for saying that it is not only the most expedient and most simple, but the right, just and equitable way.

I contend that gold or specie during the war did not have or rather had more than its relative value. For example, a horse supposed to be worth $90 before the war was put up for sale when Confederate money was selling 30 for 1, the horse was bid off at $900. That would make the horse worth in specie according to the committee's scale $30. Now that looks, at first view, all wrong. But, let us look at both sides of the question. Was it not a fair sale?—Did not the seller know the money was worth 30 for 1? Was it not more than any other person would pay? If the seller took the cash he received what? Just $30 worth of Confederate money, and he could ascertain this fact by converting it into gold. If the seller was willing to take $30 worth of Confederate money then, has he any right to ask for more when paid in future? Suppose he had put him up to be paid for in specie. The horse would have brought about thirty dollars because the bidder would have taken his pencil and commenced figuring, and would have come to the conclusion that elsewhere $30 worth Confederate money or $900, would buy a similar horse. Do you suppose he would have paid $90 in specie for the horse, which specie was worth $9,700, which would buy three? Certainly not, he would have taken the $2,700 and bought three horses instead of one. So in private sales. A horse or any other article passes from one man to another for just $30 worth of something, and a note given. The parties know and understand the value of Confederate money; now according to your own showing, has the Legislature or County Court any right to step in and put more value on the Confederate money than was agreed upon, and say, "Mr. Debtor you must pay to Mr. Creditor Esq., $90 in good money, although the bargain between you was that you were to pay $30 or its worth in an article (we will regard Confederate money as an article of commerce in order to illustrate more forcibly,) called Confederate money, or any other name you may give it, though its value is $30." In short the buyer puts down two piles of money, the one having $30 in specie the other $900 in Confederate money, both exactly eqivalent in value, and says, "take your choice." The seller says, "I will take your notes as I do not now need the money." Very well, now comes the rub. The buyer takes the horse and runs the risk of its being taken for the army, and runs the further risk certainly of paying the $30, and perhaps the $900, in good Confederate money should the Confederacy be established. The seller runs no risk at all, for he has his note snugly put away and is certain of getting $30, whichever way the scale may turn, and if the Confederacy be established he would get $900 in good money. So you see all the risk is in favor of the creditor and against the debtor. And in regard to money lent or merchandise sold, the same rule works. All the risk of loosing the property bought with money borrowed, is with the debtor, for the creditor is safe any way the scale may turn—safe in getting the $30 in specie bargained for on the one hand, or $900 in good money on the other.

Gold was worth five or six times more during the war, than before, or since its close. Thirty dollars then, was worth more—would buy more than $90, before the war or since. People grasped gold so tightly that it was rarely seen, though it was used sometimes. For example, butter sold during the war at $10 per pound, chickens, the same in specie, now they are selling five or six times as high, and far more plentiful. I will grant that the "gold basis" is apparently hard in some cases, but look on both sides. Look at it as it might have been. And while it looks hard to make a man take $30 for a horse, worth before the war, $90, on the one hand, it looks equally hard to compel a man to pay $90 for a horse when the $90 converted into Confederate money, would have gotten three, and especially when the bargain was to take $30 or its worth in something or whatever other you may call it. In settling these debts, we must not look upon gold at its ante bellum value, but at its real worth at the time the contract was made. In other words, we must first find out the real, intrinsic value of gold, before we price any article. For these and other favorable reasons, I think the gold basis is the right and only just way of settling debts.

PROSPECTUS.

THE publication of the

The North Carolina Presbyterian

will be resumed in Fayetteville, on Wednesday, the 2nd of January next.

Confidently relying on the hearty support which we have heretofore received, we shall endeavor to render the paper more attractive, both in appearance and matter, than it has ever been, sparing neither pains or expense in the accomplishment of this purpose.

With the passing away of old things, a new spirit of activity, energy and enterprise, has been infused into every department of secular thought and business. Why should not the Church, also, partake of the progressive advancement? Why should she, of all the agencies brought to bear with such tremendous force upon the civilization of the present time, be inefficient, laggard and almost hopeless in the working out of her own destiny?

To arouse the church to the importance and necessity of work; of unceasing, restless, tireless energy in the service of her Master and Head; this shall be our first and chief estaim In this we need assistance. We are not, alone, sufficient for these things. Our brethren must help us in every way; by contributions from their own stores of thought and study; by zealous co-operation in a common cause, for the benefit of all; by extending our circulation throughout all our borders, and thus giving us the means and the opportunity of performing well the work to which we have consecrated all that we have, and all we hope for on earth.

OR

BONE MANURE.

WARRANTED GENUINE.

BEING MADE OF THE BEST MATERIAL AND in the most approved manner, it is recommended to the public as superior to any other in the market All who have used it speak of it in the highest terms of praise, and those engaged in its manufacture will continue their best endeavors to advance the high reputation which it has acquired.

We guarantee the Phosphate to be well manufaced, and recommend it in preference to any other artificial manure in the market. We consider it nearly equal to the best Peruvian Guano, although furnished at half the price.

Messrs B H. Allen & Co., the well known manufacturers of agricultural implements, say of it:

"We take pleasure in stating that we have sold E F Coe's Super Phosphate of Lime for four years It has given universal satisfaction to our customers. We most cheerfully endorse it as an article worthy of the confidence of the public, and the purchaser may rely upon securing an article honestly and carefully manufactured.

"We would state that, after careful examination we believe this Phosphate has been improved each year since it was first put in his market, and that it will continue to maintain its present high standing. "Very respectfully,

PROSPECTUS

OF THE

COSMOPOLITE.

ON THE FIRST OF JANUARY WE WILL commence the publication, in the City of Baltimore, of a monthly

Literary Magazine.

There is no publication of this character now issued South of New York City, and the closing of the war has left a large portion of the people of the country with no literary representative.

The COSMOPOLITE will be devoted to

Literature, Art, Reviews, Scientific Papers and General Reading, and we shall number among its contributors some of the first literary men of the South, with others from the North and from London and Paris.

All matter not original will be carefully selected from the newest and best of the English, French and German publications; and its Editors will spare no effort or expense to make it rank with the VERY FIRST magazines of the country.

As its name imports, we have established the COSMOPOLITE upon no sectional basis. We hope to make it the organ of general literature alone; and will be uninfluenced by any party or clique whatever.

It will be mailed to subscribers in any part of the country upon receipt of the following

Subscription:

THE DAILY SENTINEL

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES, } Editors.

Monday, February 19, 1866.

OUR TERMS.

THE SENTINEL is issued every morning (Sunday excepted) at the following rates:

Per Daily, per year,	$10 00
" six months,	5 00
" one month	1 00
" two months	2 00
Semi-Weekly per year,	5 00
Weekly per year,	2 00

Our terms are invariably in advance. The Weekly and Semi-weekly will be issued about the first of January. Money may be sent us by the Rail Road conductors or the Express Companies.

Our Public Schools.

The Legislature is talking about adjourning, and yet we have heard of nothing which has been done to keep alive the Common Schools of the State. What the committee on education intend to propose we have not heard, but it has been intimated that propositions will come from some quarter to appropriate what is left of the Common School Fund to the necessities of the State in another direction. Can that fund be touched or appropriated to any other object but the one specifically devised in the original plan for the establishment of Common Schools? The Literary Board, we take it, is a body corporate. They are entrusted with Funds for a specific object, which even the Legislature, we take it, cannot wrest from their control and devote it to any other object? The obligations of the State to that Fund are of the nature of a contract, which it seems to us, the Legislature cannot impair or properly divert from its legitimate object. We have not looked into this question carefully. We are not prepared to say what, in our present condition can be done for the Schools, but it is of the first importance, that the School system should not, at this period, after so much has been accomplished, be disorganized. Something if it be but little, should be done to keep up the organization until the country recuperates. We hope, therefore, the wisdom of the Legislature will be exercised toward marking out the very best course for the future promotion and prosperity of the system.

Negro Testimony.

The Wilmington Dispatch is out against negro testimony, and intimates that those who favor it are not influenced by principle, but expediency. We believe that it was a great error and a grievous wrong both to the negro and the white race, to free the negro violently and suddenly. The history of the future will more and more develope the correctness of this position, and it will be shown that the injury to the negro is greater than to the whites. But this the people of the South was compelled to do. But having consented to their freedom, and professedly in good faith, how can their freedom—their rights of life, of person and of property be maintained, if they are denied the right to give evidence before the Courts in all matters in which they are directly concerned? While they were slaves the interests of their owners as well as the promptings of strong affinities which grew up between master and slave, afforded them protection. The master's oath, the master's purse and the master's arm, as well as those of his wife and children, were a defence to him. But now, these are gone, and can the law give him sure protection now without his own testimony?

From the time we saw that the abolition of slavery was an inevitable consequence of the war, and this we believed would be the result before it came on, we have not doubted the propriety and the justice of giving the negro the right to testify in all cases in which blacks were concerned, so soon as he became a freeman. But we have intentionally avoided the discussion of the subject for months, for the reason that we thought it advisable to abstain, believing that our people would be more likely to reach the same conclusion, by avoiding discussion, much sooner than by a heated controversy. Hence we have not urged it upon others, nor shall we do so. It is a matter about which every one should be fully persuaded in his own mind. We favor it however, not as a matter of policy, but from conviction that it is right. The idea that this admits a negro to equality with the whites, is to our mind, simply preposterous.

Sampson County.

Some weeks ago, some one anxious to keep up false lights to the Northern people in regard to the treatment of the blacks in the South, telegraphed North, that several negroes, we believe, had been sold by order of the Court of Sampson County to pay costs, &c., and that the Commandant of the post or of the Freedman's Bureau had arrested the whole Court. We expressed our doubt of its truth at the time. It now turns out, that Capt. Richard Holmes, head of the County police, in the exercise of his duty, on a negro being brought before him on some charge, sentenced him to be imprisoned for costs and fees. The negro not liking to go to jail, hired himself to a man for a given time to pay the costs, to which the Captain assented. This is the upshot of the bubbub, and the military authorities fully endorse Capt. H.'s course.

Female Compositors.

The Montgomery Advertiser has in its employ five respectable young ladies who are compositors on that paper. Many females in the South will be forced to seek other industrial employments than those they have hitherto engaged in. Sewing is no longer a living business, as but few are able now to put out their work. The business of compositors as we have heretofore urged, might very properly engage the attention of females.

Real Estate Bank.

The Wilmington Journal seems to object to our proposition to raise a North Carolina Land Loan Company, for the purpose of establishing a large National Bank. It says:

Now we are not familiar enough with banking projects to give oracular advice, but it does seem to us, that all banks should be based upon a specie basis. Specie is the barometer, it is the standard of exchange of the world. There is no blinking that fact. All other standards are fictitious, whether national or state. The world recognizes specie.

We should be obliged to our cotemporary if it would publish our article. From the notice it makes, its readers cannot understand our proposition. The design of forming a Land Loan Association, is to enable them to borrow the gold or its equivalent upon which to Bank. It is proposed to establish a National Bank out of the gold borrowed, and to put it precisely upon the same basis upon which all the National Banks rest. Our cotemporary is right in saying that all banks should be based upon a specie basis. It would not we presume, object to its equivalent. This is just what we propose. U. S. Bonds deposited with the U. S. Treasury, drawing six per cent. interest payable in gold, is considered a gold basis or equal to it.

By the way, the more we reflect upon it, the more we are convinced of the feasibility and success of the plan; and as the whole State is deeply interested in this matter we shall be glad if our cotemporaries would give our views ventillation that the matter may be discussed.

Cotton.

This article is now hanging heavily upon the market, both in the North and in Europe, and the tendency is rather downward than upward. The calculations of holders have been, so far, disappointed. How the thing will turn out in future is difficult to determine.

If the article declines because of the expectations based upon a large crop the present year, we think there will be sad disappointment. The cultivation of the crop may perhaps be accomplished to a considerable extent; but when "picking time" comes, we apprehend it will not be so easily done.

Much of the article now on hand, we judge is worth very little. Age and the exposure of much of it, has seriously affected its quality, and we judge the cloths made of it will be nearly worthless.

Mr. Berry's Speech.

We commend to the reader, the sound practical views of Mr. Berry, in regard to furnishing the State with a sound currency in the absence of the National currency, and providing, in the best possible way the State can now do it, to sustain her credit. We commend especially, to the attention of legislators, and all, the high ground Mr. Berry takes against repudiation, and the absolute importance of maintaining the credit of the State. If his sage counsels are disregarded, the time is coming when no honest, high souled man will be proud of the Old North State. We regret that we were compelled to defer Mr. B.'s speech to this late day.

Honor to whom Honor is Due.

We observe that a correspondent from Washington in this State to the Newbern Times, publicly acknowledges the benevolent kindness of W. H. Willard, Esq., a former resident of that place, who after the partial destruction of that place in 1864, sent the sufferers $5000.—In the winter of 1865 he sent them $1000, and during the present winter 250 pounds of cotton yarns. These acts of benevolence, always done privately, are characteristic of Mr. W. H. Willard—indeed of all the brothers, of whom there are four in this State, all enterprising business men and excellent citizens. They are all of Northern birth, but are true men—as true as if "to the manor born."

Mrs. Ball's Trial.—The Standard.

In copying the first day's trial of Mrs. Ball from the Standard, we distinctly announced to our readers, that not being able to procure a reporter ourselves, we should avail ourselves of the labors of the Standard's reporter for what we should give our readers of Mrs. Ball's trial. We supposed our readers would understand that we referred to the entire trial. The neglect, however, to put the credit to the second day's proceedings was a sheer omission. We very cheerfully acknowledge the excellency of the report and our obligations to our neighbor.

The Methodist Conference at Alexandria, which connected itself with the M. E. Church, South, recently elected the following as delegates to the General Conference to meet in New Orleans in April next: Revs. S. Register, J. S. Martin, N. Wilson, E. R. Veitch, S. S. Roszell, W. G. Eggleston. Revs. J. S. Gardner, S. Rogers and J. Poisal, are reserve delegates. A proposition was made to remove the Episcopal Methodist to Baltimore.

MAJ. GEE.—We learn that the trial of this gentleman will take place during the present or coming week. He was at one time in charge of the Confederate prison at Salisbury, and we learn that the charges against him grow out of the treatment of the prisoners at that place.

We are informed that he enjoys the highest reputation in Florida as an eminent physician, and as a most humane and kind man. His family originally went from this State, and they are among the best citizens of Florida. The citizens of that State feel an intense interest in his case, and feel confident that nothing affecting the personal honor and high gentlemanly qualities of the Dr., can be sustained against him.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

SENATE.

SATURDAY, Feb. 17.

The Senate was called to order at 10 o'clock, A. M.

Mr. Arendell, from committee on Corporations, reported back the following bills: A bill to amend an act entitled an act to incorporate the town of Graham; bill to consolidate and amend the several acts heretofore passed for the better regulation of the town of Jacksonville in Onslow county; bill to repeal the 17th section of an act passed by the General Assembly at its session in the year 1825, entitled an act for the better regulation of the town of Beaufort; a bill to incorporate the Carolina Emigration Company; bill to authorize the formation of the English and American Wool and Vine Growing Manufacturing, Mining and Agricultural Association in the United States of America, with amendments, and a bill to establish a board of Commissioners of Navigation, recommending their passage.

Mr. Morehead from the Committee on the Judiciary to whom was referred the resolution to authorize the printing of the acts of the secret sessions of 1864–'65, reported back the same, recommending its passage.

Mr. Jones, of Columbus, from a joint select committee to whom was referred a resolution in relation to furnishing artificial limbs to our soldiers at the expense of the State, reported that from all the information the committee could obtain, the artificial arm was considered more ornamental than useful, and would recommend that all who desire the arm should be furnished at cost, but the leg to all at the expense of the State. The resolution passed under a suspension of the rules.

Messrs. McLean of Cumberland and Harris of Rutherford offered additional names of Justices of the Peace for Cumberland and Rutherford Counties.

A message was received from the House transmitting additional names of Justices of the Peace, for Alexander, Gates, Chowan and Cleaveland counties, concurred in.

Mr. Carter introduced a resolution authorizing the Public Treasurer of the State, to pay over to Mr. E. Sanders, Executor of the late I. N. Sanders, Senator from Onslow county, the per diem and mileage due the said I. N. Sanders. On his motion the rules were suspended, and passed.

A message from the House transmitting a resolution in favor of Mrs. S. Hanrahan, widow of the late W. S. Hanrahan, authorizing the Public Treasurer to pay the per diem and mileage due the said W. S. Hanrahan, late Senator from Pitt, which passed under a suspension of the rules.

Mr. Coward, introduced a bill to appoint a tax collector for the County of Lenoir. On his motion passed under the suspension of the rules.

The bill to amend an act entitled an act for the better regulation of the town of Greenville came up and passed under the suspension of the rules.

Resolution in favor of Jacob Siler came up on its third reading and passed.

Bill to incorporate the trustees of the Richland Female Academy passed under the suspension of the rules.

On motion of Mr. Gash the resolution authorizing the acts of the secret session of the General Assembly for '64 '66 to be printed was taken up and on motion of Mr. Arendell was so amended as to include the secret sessions of '62 63. Quite an animated but brief discussion ensued, the ayes and nays were called, and the question passed by a vote of ayes 28, nays 11.

Leave of absence was granted to Mr. Pitchford of Warren till Wednesday next.

A message from the House was received, nonconcurring in the appointment of Lewis Gardner as a Justice of the Peace for Cleveland county; also submitting an additional name for Justice of Peace for Lincoln county, which was concurred in.

On motion of Mr. Cowles, the Senate adjourned until Monday morning at 10 o'clock.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

SATURDAY, Feb. 17.

The House was called to order at ten o'clock, A. M.

The journal of yesterday was read and approved.

Leave of absence was granted Messrs. Chadwick, Holderby, Foster, Coates, Potter and Houston.

BILLS INTRODUCED.

Mr. Waugh introduced a bill to repeal so much of the revised code, chap. 68, sec. 2., entitled "marriage," as requires the clerks to take a bond. Referred to the Judiciary.

Mr. Stilley, a bill for the relief of the President and Directors of the Washington Toll Bridge Company. Passed its several readings under a suspension of the rules.

Mr. York, a resolution that the two Houses adjourn sine die on the 5th of March next. Laid on the table on the motion of Mr. Gidney.

ON CALENDAR.

A bill to repeal that provision of the "Stay Law," which requires Executors to give security. Passed its second reading.

Mr. Hutchison entered a motion to reconsider the vote by which the House rejected on yesterday the bill to authorize the banks of the State to subscribe for stock in the National banks.

After some discussion in which Messrs. Smith of Hertford, Cowan, Blackmer, Luke and Hutchison advocated a reconsideration, and Messrs. Thompson, Caldwell and Waugh opposed, Mr. Waugh moved to lay on the table the motion to reconsider. The yeas and nays were called, and the House refused to lay on the table by the following vote:

YEAS.—Messrs. Beasley, Black, Burgess, Caldwell, Cameron, Carson, Dargan, Davis, of Carteret, Davis, of Halifax, Everett, Faircloth, of Green, Faircloth, of Wayne, Ferrell, Flythe, Gaines, Henry, Hodnett, Jenkins, of Gaston, Judkins, Kinney, Leigh, of Tyrrell, Logan, McDonald, McGuire, Wilson, Niven, Nicks, Page, Smith, of Columbus, Stilley, Scoggin, Thompson, Trull and Waugh.—34.

NAYS—Messrs. Ashworth, Barnett, Blackman, Blythe, Bonner, Bryson, Burton, Campbell, Candler, Cowan, Cox, Craige, Crawford, Dunn, Farrow, Garland, Gidney, Hamilton, Harper, Hawes, Hilliard, Holmes, Horton, Hutchison, Hyman, Jenkins of Granville, Jones, Kenan, Lee of Gates, Lucas, Luke, Manly, Marler, McIntosh, McNair, Moore of Martin, Mott, Newsom, Palmer, Rosebro, Shaw, Smith of Cumberland, Smith of Hertford, Teague, Wheeler, Williams, Wilson and York—48.

On motion of Mr. Thompson, the motion to reconsider was made the special order for 12 o'clock, M., on Wednesday next.

Messages were received from the Senate announcing the refusal of that body to recede from amendments to the bill further extending the operation of the statute of limitations, and the bill regulating the terms of the Supreme Court. The House assented to the Senate's action, as to the first of these, and asked a committee of conference as to the latter.

The Senate, by message, assented to the proposition to raise a committee of conference.

Sundry engrossed resolutions in relation to the collection of taxes in Beaufort county, and a bill to authorize the Clerk of the County Court of Chowan, to administer the oath of office to the Sheriff elect, passed their several readings under a suspension of the rules.

A bill to incorporate Mystic Tie Lodge, A. Q. M., in the town of Marion, McDowell county, and engrossed resolution in favor of Edward Sanders, Executor of Isaac N. Sanders, deceased, late Senator from Onslow county, also passed their several readings.

The following bills on calendar passed their 2nd and 3rd readings, viz: A bill to incorporate Transylvania Seminary; bill to amend the charter of the town of Lenoir; bill to re-enact the 4th sect. 102d chap. of Revised Code; resolution concerning Cherokee Indians; bill to authorize certain Cherokee Indians to remain permanently in North Carolina; bill to authorize wardens of the poor, in case any indigent person becomes chargable to a county possessed of any estate, which is insufficient for the support of such indigent person, to institute proceedings to subject the same to the indemnity of the County, whose duty it is made by law, to provide for the maintenance of the poor thereof; a bill to punish seditious language, insurrections and rebellions in the State; a bill to authorize the court of pleas and quarter sessions of Cumberland county to appoint Inspectors of naval stores, and a bill to authorize the county courts to empower administrators, guardians and executors to sell for cash.

The House then adjourned until 10 o'clock A. M. on Monday next.

The Usury Law.

The usury law, by driving away domestic and keeping out foreign capital, is crushing the industry of the State. From inability to borrow money, farmers cannot stock and supply their farms, mechanics are deterred from embarking in manufacturing enterprises or hindered in prosecuting those already begun, merchants cannot meet their obligations and must close business. For lack of money, which can only be brought into the State by a repeal of that time-honored relic of old fogyism, the usury law, the agriculture, trade and manufactures of the State languish. The above facts are known to the Legislature, but the majority of the members being from the country, and being possessed by an overwhelming apprehension that if the chance of borrowing money is given to them and their constituents, their lands will be got away from them, they refuse to afford the much needed relief. We would warn them that persistence in their present blind policy will insure the loss of their lands and every thing else they have. Real estate, city and rural, is every day being forced under the auctioneer's hammer and sold at half its real value, because the owners cannot hold or use it without money, and they are unable to borrow money upon it at the present legal rate of interest. Were the usury law out of the way, were the legal rate of interest raised sufficiently, or were all contracts for interest declared by law to be valid, Northern capital, now begging investment, would flow thither, and immediate relief would be experienced all over the State. Farmers would be able to pay and feed their freedmen; manufactures would start into life, and business, now prostrate, would revive.—Some spendthrifts would part with their patrimonies, but the wise and frugal, who constitute the mass of our people, would prosper. That Northern capital awaits only the repeal of the usury law to seek investment here is no bare assertion; we have facts before us upon which we make the positive declaration.

We could fill our paper with instances of farmers compelled to sell their lands because they cannot raise money upon them to make them available; of merchants and mechanics who must close business for the same reason; but such a display would be useless, as we could not hope that it would impress more deeply upon the minds of our legislators the necessity of taking some action to let into the Comonwealth the vital stream of prosperity—money.—Richmond Times.

The Texas State Convention.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 13.

The Texas State Convention organized on Saturday. It was agreed, by a vote of sixty-six to eleven, that all the members should swear to support the Constitution of the United States.

A resolution previously adopted that all who had not hitherto done so should take the amnesty oath, was reconsidered.

The constitutional oath was administered to the Convention en masse, by Judge Everett, the members standing.

Governor Hamilton was notified of the organization and sent a message, recommending, among other things, the repudiation of the Confederate debt.

The Convention appointed a Committee on the condition of the State Executive, Legislative and Judiciary Department, of which Judge Roberts, of Smith, President of the Secession Convention, is Chairman. A committee on the General Provisions of the Constitution, of which Judge Hancock is chairman, and committees on elections, printing, education, public lands, and Indian Affairs, &c.

Resolutions declaring no persons coming within the exceptions of the President's Amnesty Proclamation entitled to a seat, and a substitute to refer all credentials to a committee on elections, were referred.

Resolutions to adjust debts contracted on the basis of Confederate money; to inquire after the records of the library and furniture of the Supreme Court; to extend relief to parties owing debts prior to the war, and to establish separate criminal courts, were all referred to appropriate committees.

A Big Conspiracy.

The National Intelligencer says, information from the State Department, furnished by the United States Consul Potter, reveals the existence of a wide-spread conspiracy in Canada and Europe with the object of affecting the finance of the United States Government. The intention seems to be, if possible, to create a panic in the European markets in reference to American securities, and as a consequence, forcing home our bonds now held there. The hope seems to be cherished that they may in this manner bring about a financial crisis in the United States, and prostrate the commercial interests of the country. The principal Canadian agent is Vernon, and the first movement toward the desired result exhibits itself in a work, the proof-sheets of which are in the hands of the Department.

THE FORTHCOMING CABINET CHANGE.—On the 4th of March next, it is said, the President will announce three new members of his Cabinet, one, if not two, of whom will be from across the line. Meanwhile those gentlemen who are to vacate are announcing, in advance, that the action will be purely their own, and the cause, the refusal of the President to endorse the measures of the Radical party.

EDUCATION IN FLORIDA.—A bill for the education of freedmen has been introduced in the Legislature of Florida. It proposes to tax the freedmen themselves to the amount required, the sum to be paid into the State treasury to be disbursed by the State and county officers. The Governor indorsed the plan and asked its reference to a joint committee.

Remarks of Mr. Berry,

OF ORANGE,

In the Senate of North Carolina, Friday, February the 9th, on the bill to issue Treasury Notes to pay the interest on State Bonds.

MR. SPEAKER.—I was well aware, when I introduced the bill now under consideration, that no bill or proposition could be submitted to this General Assembly, that would not be hedged in with difficulties and surrounded with objections. In this I have not been disappointed. But at the same time, I was aware that the responsibility rested on the General Assembly to provide some means to sustain the credit of the State, to pay the current expenses of the government, to devise ways and means to meet the existing liabilities of the government and also to provide a State Currency. These are the great objects we all have in view, and a more responsible duty has seldom rested on a Legislative body.

Mr. Speaker, it seems clear to my mind, that, to effect these great objects, we must at once adopt some sound system of financial policy to revive the State's credit. Currency is to some extent an imaginary thing. And notwithstanding that gold and silver regulate the value of all kinds of property both real and personal, intrinsically, it is not so valuable as iron, although one pound of gold is worth over one ton of iron. You might withdraw all the gold that is in circulation and restore it to the bowels of the earth, and still the human family would be prosperous and happy; but take from them the iron, and they would at once sink into barbarism, the higher latitudes of the globe would be depopulated and only the tropics be inhabited. So we see that more or less, currency is an imaginary thing; and from eighty to one hundred millions of the precious metals in the United States form the basis on which our currency rests.

A large portion of that is locked up in the vaults of the banks. Still on this foundation a sufficiency of paper currency is issued to carry on the large transactions of the government and the people. It is continually going out and returning, like the blood of the human system.—It passes though the heart to the extremities of the body, when the veins call it up and send it back to the heart, and as long as this action goes on uninterrupted the man is healthy and vigorous. But if the heart becomes diseased or the channels of the blood obstructed, and the physician fails to restore the patient, he dies. The treasury of the State is its heart.

The Convention passed an ordinance repudiating the former currency. It cut off the life blood from that department of government—about ten or twelve millions of currency was lost to the people of the State, and it will return no more, forever. Senators, you are the physician that must restore the life-blood to our political system!

If the returning blow given to the credit of the State be renewed by this Legislature, the future prospects of our people are gloomy indeed. We must restore public confidence not only in the State but out of it. Let us come square up to the issue and provide ways and means to meet present liabilities, and give the people a currency that will have credit all over the State and that will appreciate State securities and restore public confidence.

Mr. Speaker, owing to the disorganized condition of labor the people of the State need indulgence—they want time to sow, to reap, and to dig from the soil the equivalents to gold and silver. Unless this indulgence is given, the future, I repeat, is filled with gloom. After much reflection, sir, I am satisfied the bill under consideration will accomplish all that is necessary.

But the opponents of this bill entertain a different view. They say it will depreciate the credit of the State. They say that holders of coupons would not exchange them for the small treasury bonds, or in other words, that they would hold on to paper evidences of State indebtedness, bearing no interest, rather than exchange them for small bonds, which they could loan out to individuals, with good security and receive the lawful interest of the State. Owing to the want of a circulating medium, these small treasury bonds would at once be in great demand and would soon become current all over the State.

Another objection urged is that inasmuch as they are receivable for all public dues, there would be paid into the Treasury too many of them and too little of other currency to meet the ordinary expenses of the State government. True, a considerable portion of the taxes would be paid in these bonds, but I also believe that enough of other currency would also be paid into the Treasury to meet current expenses.—Thus, I hold, that two great objects would be accomplished—the State would be provided with a currency and its ordinary expenses liquidated.

But, Mr. Speaker, there are Senators who take the extraordinary position that as the Convention repudiated the war debt due our own citizens, the Legislature should repudiate the ante-war debt due mostly to foreigners. This is a false position. The Convention embodied in its ordinance that it shall be the duty of the Legislature, as soon as it is practicable, to provide for paying all debts and obligations created or incurred by the State, otherwise than in aid of the rebellion. This is the organic law of the land and should be obeyed by the Legislature, and if it fails a heavy responsibility will rest upon this body.

Such a disregard for organic law will repeat the stunning blow given to the State's credit by the Convention. Repudiation I regard as the most fatal step the State has taken since adopting the ordinance of secession. It took from the pockets of the people some ten or twelve millions of money, and has left us without a circulating medium. Are the people to be left in this straightened condition?

A great commonwealth, extending over an area of 45,500 square miles, with one million inhabitants, is to be left without a currency! Mr. Speaker, before Senators make up their minds, let them remember the high position we once occupied in financial circles. A great responsibility rests upon us to restore our State to her proud position before the world, and to relieve our people. It is high time we were maturing some plan, and I believe the bill under consideration meets the emergency. But I can say to Senators, that I will support any other proposition that will relieve the people in their present condition—which is wretched indeed.

A well known New York merchant, says the Washington Union, writing from the South, states: "I believe no man will be molested who attends to his business and is disposed to deal fairly, and comes legitimately in possession of lands, either by law, lease or purchase."

RAILROAD TO DANVILLE, VA.—The Virginia house of delegates have passed a bill authorizing the opening of books of subscription to raise money, not to exceed $2,500,000, to build a railroad from Lynchburg to Danville, and incorporating the said company when $100,000 shall have been subscribed.

STEALING.—Mr. Wm. Collins had his shop broken open this week and pretty well cleaned out. Flour, peas, meal, fish and oysters, are very good things in their way, and some one is, o doubt, having a good time at Mr. C.'s expense.—Greensboro' Visitor.

CONCORD, N. C.

THE first session of this school will commence February 12th, 1866 and continue twenty weeks:

Terms as follows payable in advance:

Primary English	$25 00
Higher English	30 00
Latin and Greek	37 50

No deductions will be made for absence except in cases of protracted sickness.

Pupils entering after the commencement of the session will be charged in proportion to the above rates. Good board can be had in respectable families for about $15 per month.

The patrons of this school may feel assured that their sons will be thoroughly instructed and well trained.

The Principal is a graduate of the University of Va., and, also, of the Virginia Military Institute; and, prior to his entering the Confederate Army as Major of the N. C. "Bethe" Regiment, he was successfully engaged in teaching, having filled successively the positions of Assistant Professor in the Virginia Military Institute, Professor in the State Seminary of Florida, and Professor in the N. C. Military Institute at Charlotte. He will be assisted by an educated gentleman, who is also an experienced teacher.

Dissolution of Copartnership.

THE firm heretofore known as that of Baker, Cowper & Co has this day been dissolved by mutual consent. The duties devolving on one of the partners as Cashier of the Bank of Cape Fear, and the removal of the other to Norfolk (his residence before the war) for the purpose of practicing law, have caused this dissolution. The business will be continued by Mr Pulaski Cowper and Mr James A. Moore, late Teller of the Bank of Cape Fear, under the name and style of Cowper & Moore, who will settle up the business of Baker, Cowper & Co.

NOTICE.

I SHALL offer for sale, at public auction, on Tuesday, 27th of February next, the farm on which I now reside, situated partly in Nash, and partly in Edgecombe Counties N C. This farm contains nine hundred and seventy-five acres, of which one-third is in a high state of cultivation and well adapted to the growth of cotton, corn and oats. The other portion is well timbered and peculiarly valuable on account of the growing demand for lumber in the vicinity.
I will sell, at the same time, my stock of all kinds, including Horses, Mules, Cows and Calves, Sheep, Sows and Pigs, and all of good breeds.

ALSO

five hundred barrels of Corn a large quantity of Fodder and Shucks, farming Utensils of all kinds, Wagons and Carts, a fine collection of Carpenters' Tools, and about twenty thousand pounds of Pork already killed and salted.
All this property will be sold under the hammer of Mr. J. J. Alston, well known as an accomplished auctioneer.
This property is peculiarly valuable, from the fact that it is within easy access of the Wilmington and Weldon Rail Road being only three miles from one station and six from another Location remarkably healthy.
Terms made known on day of sale.

DAILY SENTINEL.

Monday, February 19, 1866.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

ADVERTISEMENTS.—David Barrow late of Winston, N. C. is with Messrs. Zinn, Dorrance & Co. New York, and will be glad to see his friends.

Messrs Parkinson & Co., offer an immense variety of articles on good terms. We cannot speak from our knowledge, but we hear of some who have tried this house and find it does as it promises.

Two young ladies want situations as teachers. See Card.

THE FOUNDRY.—Messrs. B. P. Williamson & Co. have about completed their arrangements at the Foundry. They are prepared to furnish farmers with every thing desirable in the way of utensils.

AN EDITOR.—We had a brief call on Saturday, from Mr. Shober, the editor of the Tallahasse Sentinel, who called on his way to the North to see his friend Maj. Gee, now confined in this city on serious charges by the military.

Senator Call of Florida on his way to Washington spent a day in the city last week.

The Wilmington Dispatch has become an evening paper. The arrangement it believes to be better for the public. The Dispatch is a spirited and excellent paper, and we are glad to see it is spreading abroad, with its cotemporaries in that growing city.

The lecture of Bishop Atkinson in Wilmington is highly spoken of. The subject was, "The Power of Genius for Good or Evil."

TRIAL AT WILMINGTON.—Four negroes charged with the murder of the late Mr. Thomas Pickett of New Hanover, are now on trial before a Military commission at Wilmington.—Only two witnesses had been examined, Miss Pickett and Miss Carter, and both identify the prisoners.

A MAIL.—An effort is being made to establish a semi-weekly mail from Rockingham to Wadesboro. It is to be done by private subscription.

BRIDGE AT WELDON.—The bridge at Weldon belonging to the Seaboard Railroad is rapidly approaching completion, and will be ready perhaps within the next month.

The Legislature of Mississippi have levied a tax of 50 cents on dogs, excepting one dog for every head of a family.

Dr. Louis M. Jiggitts, formerly of North Carolina, died recently at Canton, Miss., while walking in the garden with his daughter.

No one, with no previous knowledge of Senator Trumbull, could read his late resolutions and speeches, and suspect that he had a single drop of white blood in him. Physically, he is a white man; politically, he is a nigger.—Prentice.

Foreign News.

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.

The steamer City of London arrived at Liverpool to-day bringing dates to the 1st instant.

Cotton dull and declining—sales two days 18800 bales. Five-twenties 66¼ to 66¾. There is almost a panic in the London money market.

The Fenian commission is progressing in its investigation. It is rumored that Parliament will be requested to suspend habeas corpus and give the government power to deal with foreign conspirators. It is officially announced from Vienna, that negotiations for the formation of a new corps of Austrian volunteers for Mexico, will shortly be concluded.

The steam-ram detained in the Thames, built for the Peruvian government, has been allowed to depart. The Ram built by the Lairds for Peru, which recently left Liverpool, was at Brest, where, it is announced, she will be detained until the Spanish and Peruvian difficulties are settled.

Excitement in Tennessee.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.

A dispatch from Cincinnatti, states that great excitement prevailed in the Tennessee Legislature on yesterday, during the discussion of the franchise bill. Hard words passed between the Speaker and one member; the former threw the mallet at the head of the latter.

Gen. Lee in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.

Gen. Lee was examined for several hours before the reconstruction Committee to-day.

The Cure is Thorough.

Kenneth Haynes, Esq., Clerk of Columbus County Court, writes [April 2, 1853:] "During the latter part of the year 1852 I was severely afflicted with diseased liver, and many nights while in bed the pain would become so excruciating that I was compelled to get out of the bed and sit up until the pain would subside. I procured a few boxes of the Southern Hepatic Pills, and the first dose gave me great relief. I continued to use the Pills for two weeks, and have not suffered from liver disease since. I have recommended them accordingly, and several persons are in want of them."

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS,

Are the most perfect purgative which we are able to produce, or which we think has ever yet been made by any body. Their effects have abundantly shown to the community how much they excel the ordinary medicines in use. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. Their penetrating properties stimulate the vital activities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood, and expel disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow distemper, stimulate sluggish or disordered organs into their natural action, and impart a healthy tone with strength to the whole system. Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also formidable and dangerous diseases. While they produce powerful effects, they are at the same time, in diminished doses, the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-coated, they are pleasant to take; and, being purely vegetable, are free from any risk of harm. Cures have been made which surpass belief, were they not substantiated by men of such exalted position and character, as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. Many eminent clergymen and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the reliabilities of our remedies, while others have sent us the assurance of their conviction that our Preparations contribute immensely to the relief of our afflicted, suffering fellow men.
The Agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis our American Almanac, containing directions for the use, and certificates of their cures, of the following complaints:
Costiveness, Bilious Complaints, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Heartburn, Headache arising from foul stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Morbid Inaction of the bowels and pain arising therefrom, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, all Diseases which require an evacuant medicine. They also, by purifying the blood and stimulating the system, cure many complaints which it would not be supposed they could reach, such as Deafness, Partial Blindness, Neuralgia and Nervous Irritability. Derangements of the Liver and Kidneys, Gout and other kindred complaints arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.
Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with other preparations which they make more profit on. Demand AYER'S and take no other. The sick want the best aid there is for them, and they should have it.
Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & Co., and sold by Williams & Haywood, P. F. Pescud, Raleigh, N. C., and Dealers generally.

PATENT 10,000 IN USE.
1609 CHESTNUT ST.
PHILADELPHIA.
ASTOR PLACE, NEW YORK. 19 GREEN ST., BOSTON.
ADDRESS THE INVENTOR,
B. FRANK. PALMER, LL.D. PRES'T A. A. LIMB CO.

These inventions stand approved as the "best" by the most eminent Scientific and Surgical Societies of the world, the inventor having been honored with the award of FIFTY GOLD AND SILVER MEDALS (or "First Prizes") including the Great Medals of the World's Exhibition in London and New York; also the most Honorary Report of the great Society of Surgeons of Paris, giving his Patents place above the ENGLISH AND FRENCH.
Dr. Palmer gives personal attention to the business of his profession, aided by men of the best qualifications and greatest experience. He is specially commissioned by the Government, and has the patronage of the prominent Officers of the Army and Navy. Six Major-Generals and more than a thousand less distinguished officers and soldiers have worn the PALMER LIMBS on active duty, while still greater numbers of eminent civilians are, by their aid, filling important positions, and effectually conceal their misfortune

WM. E. PELL, Proprietor.

From the Norfolk Virginian.

TO A DECEIVER.

The following lines are no fancy sketch—they are based upon fact. The writer, years ago, in passing along the street, saw the deserted one, pale and in a state of agitation, gazing on the deceiver in a circle of gay ones, who were smiling upon him "with ever beaming glance." The writer went home musing—and penned the subjoined verses.

Thou vowedst, and thou wast believed,
But false as hell thy vows have proved—
She trusted thee but was deceived
And ruined by the man she loved.
She rests now in the silent grave,
Unwept is she, because undone,
And thou alone hadst power to save
The life of that poor ruined one.

Ah, and the fate of her on whom
The world had fixed its damning seal!
She withered till she reached the tomb,
Crushed down by those who could not feel—
Without a hope, despised, alone,
She seemed a mark for all to shun;
None had the recklessness to own
A care for that poor ruined one.

And wast thou scorned by the world,
Hated and scorned by every friend?
Was foul contempt upon thee hurled
By those who knew thy victim's end?
Did every fair one spurn thy touch,
And from thee as a serpent ran?
'Twas thus they fled from her—Ah, such
The fate of that poor ruined one!

Oh, no—The eye of beauty smiles
On thee with ever beaming glance;
Those hands, whose very touch defiles,
Are never shunned in mazy dance;
In halls of fashion thou dost reign
In power and fame eclipsed by none—
But in that circle light and vain
None think of that poor ruined one.

Then of such honor drink thy fill,
Where blasted honor draws no tears,
Go onward in thy course, distil
Thy poison into willing ears;
Bask on in fashion's brilliant ray—
Thou adder in the morning sun—
Forgetting that there comes a day
To judge thee for that ruined one!

Then murderer! Though by all below
Thy frightful crime may be forgot,
The hour will come when thou shalt know,
The Eye of Vengeance slumbers not;
When conscience shall with thunder peal
Thy very inmost senses stun,
And reason from her throne shall reel,
When thinking of that ruined one.

While friends shall weep around thee there,
While writhing on thy couch of pain,
While madly wild thy eyeballs glare,
And fiends are harrowing thy brain;
When life's last breath has almost fled,
And the death struggle has begun,
Then, then shall flit around thy bed,
The spectre of that ruined one!

And in the world beyond the tomb
That murdered form shall hunt thee still;
That eye shall pierce hell's blackest gloom
And meet thine own, turn where it will;
That voice, now hushed, shall rend thine ear
In shrieks thou'lt not have power to shun;
Through all eternity thou'lt hear
The curses of that ruined one!

Anecdote of Gen. Hoke.

We find the following piece going the rounds of our exchanges:

As the gallant Gen. Hoke, of North Carolina, was lately traveling on the cars from New York to Washington, on the seat in front of him sat a negro, and on that immediately opposite two United States officers, one a general.

Soon after leaving New York, Gen. Hoke saw a man, who was walking through the car, pick up from the floor, near where the negro sat, what he, at the time, supposed to be a ticket and when the conductor came around and was told by the negro that he had lost his ticket, but he had bought and paid for one, and that he had a check for his baggage, the General was satisfied that the man he saw walking through the car had found the negroe's ticket, and so informed the conductor, who accepted his statement, and went on marking the checks of other passengers.

A change of conductors takes place between Washington and New York, and when the second one, on his round, was told by the negro that he had lost his ticket, he said that was not his look out, and that the fare would have to be paid. General Hoke then stated to him what he had told the first conductor, but instead of receiving and crediting the General's explanation, he, in a pert and impudent manner remarked that neither black man nor white man should pass by him without paying, and that the negro should pay or be put off. The General then rising from his seat, and shaking his fore finger in front of the conductor's face, informed him, firmly and deliberately, that for the past four years he had been fighting for the negro, and that though defeated, he would not, even now, allow one to be maltreated in his presence, that the negro had paid his fare, and should go through. The conductor slunk away, the negro came on to Washington, but the two United States officers never said a word.

JOSH BILLINGS ON HENS.—Josh Billings talks learnedly, as follows: "The best time tew sett a hen iz when the hen is ready. I kant tell you what the best breed iz, but shanghigh iz the meanest. It costs as much to board one az it duz a stage hoss, and you mite as well undertake to fat a fanning mill by running oats thru it. There aint no profit in keeping a hen fur his eggs if he laze less than one a day. Hens ar very long lived, if they don't contract the throat dissease; there is a great many goes to the pot by this meloncholly dissease. I kant tell exactly how tew pick out a good hen, but az a general thing the long eard ones, I kno, are the least apt to scratch up the garden. Eggs packed in equal parts of salt and lime water, with the other end down, will keep from 30 to 40 years, if they are not disturbed.

Many deists attack religion, not with the weapons of men, such as reason and argument, but with grin and grimace. Raillery and wit were never designed to answer our inquiring after truth. Plato and Socrates might have a fool's cap clapped upon them, and so may Locke and Sir Isaac Newton too, and so be laughed at, but they are still great and respectable characters. Ridicule and raillery, especially in religious matters, are the weapons of pride, ignorance, and envy.

Conscience is too sacred a possession to be trifled with; its voice is faithful, but may be extinguished; and he that would have peace with himself and God, must take heed of the art and sophistry by which its admonitions may be suppressed.

A fellow out west being asked whether the liquor he was drinking was a good article, said: Waal, I don't know—guess so. There is only one queer thing about it—whenever I wipe my mouth, I burn a hole in my shirt."

Distrust all those who love you extremely upon a very slight acquaintance, and without any visible reason. Be upon your guard, too, against those who confess, as their weakness, all the cardinal virtues.

North Carolina Map for 1866.

THE Subscriber has, after ten years of toil and experience, prepared this new and beautiful map, from new engravings, with all the new Counties, Rail Roads, Post Offices, with hundreds of additions and corrections, State border views, likeness of President Johnson, Andrew Jackson, J. K. Polk, Govs. Swain, Graham, Vance, &c., altogether presenting a superb Map, worthy of the State and a place in every household, vastly superior to any thing in this line in finish and beauty.

This Map is entirely from new engravings, and is a great improvement on Cooke's & Pearce's old Map.

Beware of Northern humbugs and impositions.

This Map is now ready for printing.

Agents wanted in all parts of the State.

Editors who will copy and notice this advertisement, will be entitled to a proof copy of the Map, by sending paper to me.

Price of the Map, 5 feet by 4, handsomely painted and printed in the best style at the low price of $5 per copy.

LIFE INSURANCE NOTICE.

THE old and well established
Ætna Company, of Hartford,
Offers superior inducements to all who wish to provide for family or friends.

All losses are promptly paid. No case of litigation has ever occurred with this Company. With assetts of $2,300,000, it offers to receive one half of the premium in a note and half in cash, and, after the second year, to credit each customer with the dividends of the Company, which are now 50 per cent. With a small outlay, $5000, or $10,000, or $20,000, may be secured to the family after their earthly providers are taken away. What father or husband would not feel thankful on his dying couch, that he had availed himself of every proper means to place those nearest and dearest to him, above the pinchings of want, and a life of dependence upon friends or charity? 8,819 policies have been issued from the office ending Jan. 15, 1866. The total income for the year 1865 was $1,683,339 57; total disbursements $527,805 24, leaving a balance to surplus fund of $1,155,234 33.

In Raleigh, a large number have liberally responded and promptly acted in this matter; yet many delay, and may wait until it is too late. A man in this city lately left his place of business for his evening meal, well and healthy, but never reached that home except as he was carried there to die. Had that man taken the advice of the Agent, he might have left $5000 to minister to the necessities of a sorrowing family. Delays are dangerous, procrastination destructive. But one says, "If I only had confidence in the Company that it would pay, I would insure." Well, it never has failed to pay, and to-day is more responsible than ever before. It is patronized by some of the most sagacious minds in the land—men competent to detect and expose any deception if it existed.

BAUGH'S RAW BONE
Super-Phosphate of Lime.
BAUGH & SON'S,
MANUFACTURERS AND PROPRIETORS,
Store No. 20 South Delaware Avenue,
PHILADELPHIA.

THIS valuable Manure has been before the agricultural public, under one name for twelve years past, and its character for vigor of action and permanence in effect is well established. Before the war, it was introduced, to some extent, in the Southern States, and was found to be highly adapted to Cotton, Tobacco, and all Crops.

In its action, it is as quick as Peruvian Guano, while it does not leave the land in an exhausted state, but on the other hand permanently improves it. This has been fully proven by years of trial.

COPARTNERSHIP.

NEWBERN, N C., November 1st, 1865.

WE HAVE THIS DAY FORMED A COPARTnership under the name and style of Whitford, Dill & Co.,
for the transaction of a Shipping and General
Commission Business, in this Town, West side Craven Street, an old County Wharf.

To the sale of Cotton, Naval Stores, Tobacco, Lumber, Staves, Shingles, Corn, and all kinds of Produce and Merchandise, and also to the sale and purchase of Real Estate and State and other Stocks, we will give our personal attention.

We are Agents for Murry's North Carolina Semi Weekly Line of Steamships, between Newbern and New York, and for Sailing Vessels for Baltimore, Philadelphia, and other ports in the United States, and for different ports in the West Indies. Thus it will be seen that we are furnished by our own vessels with the amplest facilities for the speedy transportation of Freight and Passengers. But in addition to these, there is a weekly line of Ocean Steamships on the same route, and a tri-weekly line of Steamers by inland route through Albemarle and Chesapeake Canal to Norfolk, Baltimore, Philadephia and New York; hence Merchants and Shippers entrusting the transportation of their freight to us, can rely with confidence on its speedy transit.

We will make liberal advances on consignments.

All letters addressed to us on the subject of freight, or on any other business, will be promptly answered.
